Autumn 12

Message from Mrs Reid

It has been a dramatically Christmassy week here at Frieth.

On Tuesday we had a marvelous afternoon of pantomime and music courtesy of the group Bowjangles. As part of their performance they rewrote the 12 days of Christmas with contributions from the children, including 6 barrels of ice cream and 3 green skateboards!

Audience participation stepped up a gear with a between Mr Honey and myself! Photos on the website soon!

Thank you to Bowjangles for a fantastically festive performance!

The main event of the week however was the children's own performance of 'Children of the World'. The performances from all the children were amazing. They danced and sang their hearts out. Their words were clear and they oozed confidence.

Well done to our solo groups as well for rising to the challenge of singing in front of so many people.

Finally, thank you to all the teachers and support staff who work so hard to bring performances like this together. Thank you.

Have a lovely weekend.
