4th March 2016

Message from Mrs Reid

This week has been incredibly rewarding and exiting in many ways. Our first exciting news was our brand new website going live. Now we just need you to make as many hits on the website as possible so we can bring it up through the rankings on the search engines!

The biggest news in school this week was our World Book Day. I thought I'd ask Buzzards to tell you all about it, so her it is in their own words.

On Thursday 3rd March everyone dressed up as characters from books. I dressed up as Peter Rabbit. On my t-shirt it was furry. It was fun having a day of not wearing school uniform. We had fun. Some of the costumes were funny.

Owls Class dressed up for World Book Day

Lucy dressed up as Silky from the Far Away Tree. Mr Honey dressed up as Horrid Henry's Dad. Mrs Grundy dressed up as Snow White. Mrs Tyzack was Horrid Henry's Mum and that's all I know. A friend of mine, Emily, was Sophie from the Tiger Who Came To Tea.

Maisie

On Thursday the 3rd March everyone dressed as characters from a book. It was so fun on World Book Day. We also made book covers on the computers. All the costumes looked great. Next on the computers

we played BeeBot. At Frieth School Lucy dressed as Silky, I dressed as a ballerina and Maisie dressed as Peter Rabbit.

Jessica

Also this week, we have been preparing for Mother's Day so hopefully there will be a lot of spoiled Frieth mums out there this weekend! Our Reception children helped Mrs Tebbot and Mrs Wheeler to make posies for the Church service at 3:30pm this Sunday.

Happy Mother's Day!

Mrs Jo Reid

REMINDERS:

Differences of opinion

One of the strengths of our school is that our community of parents and volunteers are like a family; passionate about helping our pupils to be the best they can be. Most of the time, we work well together with this purpose in mind. As with all families however, there are times that this is more challenging and we disagree about the methods or decisions being made. At times like this it is our responsibility as adults to model the same gentle and kind, sharing and caring core values that we teach to our children. Unfortunately in recent weeks this has become more of a challenge than usual so I would like to ask parents and volunteers to please be mindful of this. If there is an issue which you would like to discuss further or provide feedback on, please do so through the channels we have in school such as: the Parent Representatives; the PTA email for PTA feedback and agenda items; or by emailing myself or the relevant member of staff in the office. Thank you.

Tissues

We would be very grateful for any donations of tissues for the classrooms. We have plenty of handwash in stock, thank you for donating this earlier in the school year.

Girls accessories

We have noticed an increase in the number of girls coming to school with nail polish and rather ornate hair accessories of late. Please can we ask parents to ensure all nail polish is removed for school, and that hair bands and clips are plain, preferably in school colours and used purely to keep hair tied back and neat. Thank you.

Mobile Phones

It has come to our attention in school that some of our pupils are texting each other outside of school and that according to the feedback we have received from pupils, some of these text conversations have taken place once their parents think they are asleep and very late into the night. As part of our ongoing e-safety and safeguarding commitment to our pupils, please can I ask parents of pupils with mobile phones to check on whether they are being used appropriately. As a school we would recommend that primary age pupils should not have access to mobile phones or internet devices in their bedrooms, but that these are used under supervision from parents or adults.

Whole School Trip

Dolce are offering packed lunches for the school trip on 14th March, they will be delivered to school early that morning. Please ensure you place your order on line with Dolce if you would like a packed lunch, they are available to book now.
